I believe that allowing phones on airplanes will interfere with passenger safety. If there is an emergency passengers may be too concerned with using their cell phones instead of listening to flight attendant instructions, and may impair passenger ability to make a quick and safe evacuation.